REVIEW OF MARKETS FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

Stocks, Money, Exchange, Bonds, Grain, Cotton, Provisions, Etc.

New York, April 9.—The stock market made the unexpected response to Sat-urday's unfavorable bank statement by urday's unfavorable bank statement by a general drawing in of speculative ventures. The selling pressure was not particularly severe in the general market, but with the curtailment of the buying demand, consequent upon the disappointment over the bank showing, the burden of offerings was sufficient to bear down prices to a lower level. The higher range of prices in London and an opening here above Saturday's level in sympathy did not have the hoped for effect of dissuading sellers. On the contrary, the higher prices level in sympathy did not have the hoped for effect of dissuading sellers. On the contrary, the' higher prices seemed to invite profit-taking, and the opening gains were not long maintained. The acute depression manifested by sugar had an additional influence in depressing the market. This mercurial industrial gave evidence during the latter part of the day of being over-sold, and, after having fallen nearly eight points, recovered more than half of the decline. The room-traders, who had sold the list on the strength of the weakness in sugar, were driven to cover by this rally and the aggressive strength developed at a few other points. As a consequence the closing was active and firm at a level considerably above the low point of the day, but showing net declines for the majority of stocks. The weakness of sugar in the morning caused signs of lively sympathy at other points in the industrial list. People's gas, the tobacco stocks and a number of the tron and steel stocks fell away easily from one to three points. The strength manifested by the New York tractions served as an offset to this, the railfoad list maintaining a condition resembling suspended animation. Large inroads upon the Pacific stocks, Pennsylvañia and the Grangers turned the tide toward depression until aggressive strength developed in Missouri Pacific. This stock moved up to 64½ in the late transactions on heavy buying, and Brooklyn Rapid Transit rose buoyantly to 79½, with a stimulating effect on the general list. Very heavy selling orders were attributed to Chicago account, and a sharp fall in New York exchange at Chicago to 35 cents discount may have been due to this cause. The movement in the specialities was due to individual causes. The street was full of rumors all day regarding sugar and having to do with the rise in price in raw sugars. Brooklyn Rapid Transit was manipulated by a pool with a preliminary tip for an advance.

London showed a disposition to buy stocks here in spite of the stiffness of the London money market of the Lond On the contrary, the higher prices seemed to invite profit-taking, and the
